

For Immediate Release

East San José Democrats schedule Voter Registration Training in hopes to increase voter participation

San José, CA - June 23, 2012 - Volunteers are invited to Voter Registration Training on Saturday July 14 from 11:00 am - 2:00 pm at National Hispanic University. The featured speaker will be Francisco Heredia, Executive Director of Mi Familia Vota. Mi Familia Vota is a successful voter registration organization in Phoenix Arizona. Thanks to Mr. Francisco's leadership and the collaboration of many regional progressive organizations, the Latino voter turn out in Phoenix increased by 200% in the most recent election. For more information on the training visit <http://goo.gl/6x9S6>.

About Mi Familia Vota

They envision a future in which the electorate is energized and empowered, and reflective of the growing diversity in the United States. They work with community based, educational, religious, labor, and other organizations that seek to build civically cognizant and active neighborhoods. As a Ya es Hora national partner, Mi Familia Vota is dynamically involved in increasing citizenship, census and Get Out the Vote efforts through the ¡Cuidadania!, ¡Hagase Contar!, and ¡Ve Y Vota! campaigns. Currently, Mi Familia Vota has offices in Arizona, California, Colorado, Florida, Nevada and Texas. For more information visit <http://www.mifamiliavota.org>

About East San José Democrats

Founded in 2010, the East San José Democrats actively promote, participate and engage in all political activities that affect East San José. Their strategies include public policy, advocate leadership, educate voters, support community leaders and member engagement. For more information visit <http://www.esjd.org>.

Contact:

Andrea Flores-Shelton
Director of Communications
andrea@esjd.org
408 218-0943

###